

MORE THAN A
SHOWROOM.

IT'S AN A-DEC
EXPERIENCE.

SEE WHAT'S POSSIBLE FOR YOUR PRACTICE

It all begins with the A-dec® Educational Experience. During your personalized visit, you'll get a glimpse into the meticulous design and attention to detail behind every chair, light, delivery system, and piece of dental furniture we manufacture—all to help you work more comfortably, efficiently, and confidently.

This is a state-of-the-art facility that helps turn your vision into reality. Having the ability to tangibly bring your clinic to life within the facility is invaluable.

- Dr. Beau Murphey

We were able to see how the equipment we're ordering is manufactured. That was really insightful into how we're going to use it in our practice.

- Dr. Rebecca Ferns

I learned all the details that went into every single little thing, and the passion the people here have for the products.

DISCOVER THE A-DEC DIFFERENCE

DISCOVER. DESIGN. DREAM.

Walk your way down a timeline of A-dec history and innovation. Sit back and take an immersive video tour through our Newberg manufacturing campus and facilities. And discover the heart and soul of A-dec.

With 12 fully equipped operatories you'll have an opportunity to "test drive" a full range of equipment. An operatory with moveable walls even helps you size up your space—and spark your imagination with ideas to create your dream practice.

Hear what your peers say.

Dentists consistently rank A-dec dental equipment as the highest in quality. Listen to what your peers have to say about why they chose A-dec for their practices.

“
 The same level of detail and quality that I put into my dentistry, A-dec puts into their equipment. Once you see how this equipment is made, it really changes your perception when evaluating what to buy.
 - Dr. Meredith Gantos

EXPAND YOUR PROFESSIONAL KNOWLEDGE

Imagine the value of gaining renewed energy and vision for your practice. Clear ideas for improving efficiencies for your office and staff. And proven solutions for improving your business productivity and profitability.

Your A-dec experience will offer numerous opportunities:

- Plan potential design scenarios that can help you improve productivity.
- Gather ideas for a well-designed system that minimizes reaching, twisting and touch points.
- See how to optimize spatial dynamics for better ergonomics, patient access, and vision.

Never stop growing.

As part of our commitment to learning and discovery, A-dec also offers Continuing Education (CE) classes for credit, covering a range of topics relevant to your practice. Explore current CE classes here:

We really enjoyed the design aspects. We could see all the different options, and how they would look together.

- Dr. Casey Rhoads

ENVISION YOUR IDEAL PRACTICE

There's nothing quite like an in-person tour of A-dec's campus to learn about our history, people and state-of-the-art manufacturing capabilities—and Nashville's immersive Experience Room Theater offers just that, complete with scents and sounds. When you're ready to push some boundaries, adjust the walls of our sizeable operator to visualize how equipment and workflow will function within your room dimensions.

With a virtual tour and firsthand look into the diverse treatment room designs; handpiece delivery options, clinical instruments and new technology; materials flow and ergonomics during your A-dec Education Experience, you'll be fully prepared to determine the best solution for your unique practice.

Ready to plan your visit?

Taking the time to explore your possibilities in person could be the best investment you ever make in your practice. Contact your A-dec dealer to get the plan in motion. We can't wait to help you discover your "ideal."
